

Casa Mea News

Summer 2018

Somewhere in the middle of Transylvania, Romania, one can find Casa Mea, a house where every child is loved and wanted by a handful of caring adults. We are really grateful to all of you who have made the Casa Mea dream come true!

First Picnic of 2018

Casa Mea's children are growing and moving on. We are proud to announce that all have passed their classes. Next fall, Vlad will be a sophomore at the Prejmer high school while working part time at a little grocery store. Ana Maria passed her English exam and has the opportunity to attend a bilingual high school in Brasov. Cristina will be in the 8th grade in Prejmer, Raul in the 6th grade, Stelian & Livia in the 7th grade, and Robert in the 4th grade. Casa Mea is so proud of our kids and know they will succeed at whatever they choose to do.
